

She

I guess someone could call me crazy
But I think Chloe should know better
Right now her mind it cannot find me
But I should really be her shelter

But if I search my soul for motives
Will I find all the righteous ones?
Shouldn't that just be instinctive?
Or am I already too far gone?

Am I truly going crazy?
Or am I turning into a monster?
If I look deep down within me
Is there some good to be uncovered

But if I search my soul for motives
Will I find the righteous ones?
Shouldn't that just be instinctive?
Or am I already too far gone?

You'll never be mine
And I will never be yours
It's all in my mind
A weak dream of course

But if I search my soul for motives
Will I find the righteous ones?
Shouldn't that just be instinctive?
Or am I already too far gone?
Am I already too far gone?
Am I already too far gone?
