

Sailing

Bleeding away all my emotions
Stuck in perennial confusion
I need a remedy, need a solution
Get off my feet start the excursion

Advancing step by step my thoughts I collect
To hell with these walls around me
All of the frontiers I reject
Nothing keeps me locked away

Now I'm sailing ain't no one complaining
Though I was ailing I'm sick of this failing
And now I'm sailing away towards healing

Facing a phase of deconstruction
Hesitation, it blurred my vision
And I ain't gonna dwell on my imperfections
Get back on my feet and take some action

Advancing step by step my thoughts I collect
To hell with these walls around me
All of the frontiers I reject
Nothing keeps me locked away

Now I'm sailing ain't no one complaining
Though I was ailing I'm sick of this failing
And now I'm sailing way towards healing
