

This Is My Life Now

I gotta dive back into a happier life
Give it my all and hope the trauma will eventually subside
I've been betrayed so many god damn times
Can I find a safe place that's truly mine

Can I trust again?
Can I trust myself?
Should I go on seeking artificial hells?

How did I fall down?
This is my life now, crazy night life sounds
How did I fall down?
This is my life now, my hometown is drowned out
