

Airport

Far from the gaze, burning like home
I turn to the other's, laughing alone

A moon like fire, rising in the blue
A cry from a distance cuts through the view
The more i try the more i forget
Memories like, memories like a dream

Standing in line, standing in line at the airport
The airport, ouh !
Drift off and take, lift off and taken to the back of my mind
The back of my mind, yeah !

Airport, at the airport
Airport, at the airport

Pushed to the front, tears in my eyes
Confront all the other's laughing alone

A moon like fire, rising in the blue
A cry from a distance cuts through the view
The more i try the more i forget
Slipping through, slipping through my fingers

Standing in line, standing in line at the airport
The airport, ouh !
Drift off and take, lift off and taken to the back of my mind
The back of my mind, yeah !

Airport, airport, airport, at the airport

Standing in line, standing in line at the airport
The airport, ouh !
Drift off and take, lift off and taken to the back of my mind
The back of my mind, yeah !
